at 91 High Street

from 14th May to 15th June 2014.

You are invited to Drop In.

Open to all, the Andover shop will become a space for dialogue and exchange where an evolving collection of memories, stories, experiences, ideas and dreams about Andover past, present and future will grow.

The Encounters Andover Shop will generate a rich snapshot of objects, text and photographs. This will be used to inform a programme of public art developments around the town and will feed into the work that Andover Town Centre Summit has been doing to help improve and shape the future of the town.

Encounters have been transforming disused shops all over the country since 2003 turning them into inspiring creative places that ignite the imagination and build connections. Thousands of people of all ages have enjoyed the open atmosphere and hands on activities that offer new ways to see ourselves in relation to each other, where we live and the wider world.

“Wonderful and enjoyable. Some creative ways of encouraging residents to open up about thoughts and feelings about the town.”
